8. Borough and County Council Reports

Cllr. Rupert Kyrle advised members that there has recently been a meeting at Hampshire County Council regarding a boundary review for the County Division. He explained that the purpose is to equalise, as much as possible, the County Divisions and representation and examine the whole municipal areas of the County. It is important to ensure comparable divisions and population numbers and the Boundary Commission is looking into this.

Cllr. Jane Welsh enquired as to surface water flooding at Pretoria Road with Cllr. Rupert Kyrle. It was considered appropriate to enquire with Eastleigh Borough Council especially in relation to planning conditions as a result of recent nearby development.

There being no further business to transact, the Chairman closed the meeting at 20.08 hours.
