A Note From...

The Town Clerk's Desk

For most, winter has passed and spring is in the air. The weather is changing, plants and flowers are blooming and more. It is that in between time of year. Winter is over, but summer has not begun...

Perhaps, like me, you are working on your new year's resolutions while anticipating goals to achieve prior to summer arriving. Maybe you too are beginning to plan summer activities and vacations.

I have recently been thinking about why I feel like I am programmed to hate Mondays? It doesn't seem to matter if things are great or there's a major challenge in front of me. Monday comes and I get that Monday morning feeling. Why is this?

The weekend has always been viewed as a time to relax and/or celebrate the week. It is a time to party or visit with friends and family and, perhaps, get some chores done around the house. It is a time to meet with various other communities that tend to gather on weekends such as church, recreation, etc. People look forward to the weekend, which is great, but why does Monday get all the bad press?

Monday gets the short end of the stick. Like a new year, or the fresh season of spring, Monday should be considered a fresh new start, a renewal, an opportunity to make the week in front of us better than the week behind us. It should be the day that we wake up and express our gratitude for life. It should be the day that we chase after our dreams. Monday morning is when we should decide what steps we are going to take in the week ahead towards determining our goals and aspirations.

Perhaps Monday morning should be a time of the week where you gather yourself, your thoughts and focus on YOU! Those other times of the week are celebrated with family, friends and community so perhaps we, as individuals, should celebrate Monday in our own way... in gratitude and in hope for a great week ahead!

There are ways to cope with that Monday morning feeling. Recently, I have been fine tuning my morning routine, especially on a Monday! I use some of the following to celebrate the week ahead. It starts on Friday afternoon in anticipation of Monday, when I take a few moments to clear up loose ends at work.

Schedule something out of the ordinary and enjoy your morning coffee with a friend or neighbour, or just treat yourself to a specialty coffee on the way to work on Monday morning. How much of your routine can be done on Sunday evening? Prepare and pack lunches and set out clothes for you and your children. The more you can do to feel less rushed on Monday morning, the better.

What inspires you? Is it music? Play some music and wake up the household by demonstrating your skills as a famous pop star. Goodness knows, I do! I'm sure I'm a budding Robbie Williams or Elvis Presley! Workout on Monday morning. Try an extra vigorous workout. You will get the endorphins flowing and set yourself up for a feel-good day/ week. Try changing your surroundings on a Monday. Go for a jog at Dowd's Farm, Greta Park or the Recreation Ground!

These are just a few of the things I do to help Monday get a better reputation and they make my morning blues evaporate and create a great start to the week.

Just a quick reminder, that the paddling pool season will shortly be upon us again and this year the pool will be open on 20 May 2016.

I hope you have a great Easter and look forward to sharing my musings with you in the Summer.

See you soon!

Kevin

Committee Reports | Mayor's Events Diary

RECREATION & AMENITIES COMMITTEE

As I sit here writing this report, I realise that we are now on the right side of the year, Spring is here and we have our summer to look forward to!

Over the winter, our committee has been looking at ways to enhance some of our community areas. And we have agreed to purchase two table tennis tables to be situated next to the kiosk at the paddling pool. The tables are of concrete construction and add another feature for all the family to enjoy, whilst the children are playing in the pool. We will have a few table tennis bats available to hire through the kiosk (returnable deposit) however, if you bring your own bats, the facility will be free!

A further improvement will be a water facility which will be installed to the sports pavilion in Greta Park. The idea is that you can take your own sports bottle along and fill it at the water station. For sports enthusiasts, this will be a great asset and also for dog walkers the facility will be there too - for the dogs, of course! This idea was put forward by one of our local residents, so thank you. If you have any proactive ideas, please let me know in order that we can discuss them when planning our budgets. We hope to extend the water feature to our other sports fields if it proves successful.

The tennis courts in Woodhouse Lane are all ready for the summer season. In case you are not aware of our new access system, it is by way of a key fob. This can be purchased at the Town Council offices and a family fee is £31 for the year. Once you have purchased your fob, you can log on to the website to book a court whenever you want. The system has been working well for the short time it has been in operation, so, if you enjoy tennis, we have a really great facility within your reach!

Our fixture lists have been put in place for our next cricket season at Turnpike Way. This facility is always appreciated by our cricketers, young and old.

I shall be visiting the allotments within the next couple of weeks, so if you are there and want to give any suggestions, please let me know. However, we did have an allotment committee for you to take your ideas and complaints to, but I believe this needs re-establishing. If you want to make it a thriving facility, please get together and form a new committee.

The annual allotment renewals will be due soon, so if you wish to have an allotment, please get in touch with the Town Council if you would like one, there are a few available. Phone: 01489 780440.

We have a rolling programme to keep our play areas safe and sound for children. This year we will be updating one, I believe this will be Greta Park. We are always so pleased to see how well they are used and therefore, it is very important that they are checked for safety purposes.

Please enjoy the forthcoming summer and please keep Hedge End tidy by picking up your litter and placing it in the bins provided. On that subject, in case you do not know, all our bins are dual purpose - both ordinary litter and doggy bags!

Have a lovely Easter!

MAYOR'S EVENTS DIARY

My thanks to everyone for supporting my charity events. The Christmas Draw was a great success and the Co-op 'Trolley Dash' was won by Mrs Chris Emblin. Congratulations to all the winners and to those who provided prizes - we raised over £1000 on the sale of tickets!

Our annual Burns Night was also a great success. This year we catered for 150 people, so a big thank you to all my helpers who worked so hard in the kitchen and in preparing the hall - it is always enjoyed by everyone.

2 April - Old Time Music Hall (Hedge End Village Hall). Tickets £10. Includes Fish & Chip Supper. Hedge End's New Music Makers are putting on the show for me, so get out your big hats and join us for the party!

23 April - Mayor's Ball - Hilton Hotel. Theme: James Bond. Tickets £45.

30 April - Bandeoke at Talking Heads, The Polygon, Tickets £5 on the door.

7 May - Burns Unit Rock Night Dance, Hedge End Village Hall. Tickets £10. Includes ploughman's supper.

8 May - Queens 90th Birthday Afternoon Tea Party celebration with Ocean Brass Band (Hedge End Village Hall) Tickets £10. From 2.30 - 5.30pm. This is my last event as Mayor of Eastleigh.

Please support any of the above events if you can.

For more details on any of the above, please call 01489 784962. Thank you all once again.

Jane Welsh, Mayor of Eastleigh

TREE WARDEN REPORT

Some of you may have read my previous report where I posed the questions on what could be done to ease the flooding during heavy rains. One of the ideas put forward was to plant trees, as I remarked at the time, 'it would be something to watch out for'.

Well, recently it was reported on the news that they had planted six thousand trees along the River Lune (in Cumbria and Lancashire). We can only hope for the people living in this area, that they become established and are successful in reducing and slowing down the water running off the hillsides into the river.

Nearer home, although it has been the warmest and wettest December on record, we have been lucky and not had too much of a problem. There have been some areas of surface water and minor flooding on the roads and the fields are waterlogged. The strong winds have done a little damage but, considering the severity of them, it could have been much worse.

Due to the unseasonably warm weather, spring has arrived a little earlier this year with many trees and flowers covered in what looks like snow and candy floss! Daffodils, crocuses, daisies and some shrubs have bloomed early which have at least added some colour to the dull days. The raised flower beds in the village centre are showing a variety of colour already.

Carnival News

Hedge End Carnival Saturday 2 July 2016

The winter season is when the Carnival Committee work to try to bring you the best carnival that we can when the time comes to July...

What we can do is very limited, we only ensure that it can take place as it is down to you how good the carnival is. If you take part in the procession or the show, it will be a lot better than if you do not.

It is not too difficult to enter the procession. You do not have to construct a float on a big lorry, but if you do, Hampshire Freight are always willing to provide one for you. You could be in fancy dress collecting money for carnival charities or perhaps decorate your baby buggy or mobility scooter - there are lots of possibilities and it is much more fun to take part than just to watch.

THE OPTIONAL THEME IS CRAZY CARTOONS...

So, thinking caps on and see what you come up with. More information is on the carnival website along with the entry form. The first entry form has already been returned!

www.hedgeendcarnival.org.uk

If you prefer to have a stall on the show ground, we will be taking bookings from Easter. Owing to several attractions that have been booked in for the show space, stalls will be at a premium this year.

WE WILL BE LOOKING FOR A NEW CARNIVAL COURT TO REIGN OVER THE 2016 FESTIVITIES...

This includes a Queen who must be 14 or older and live in Hedge End, along with younger Princes or Princesses. If you could possibly fill these important roles, check out the carnival website for more information. The selection process will take place in April.

The Fantastic Firework Fiesta took place in November in poor conditions. Attendance was about half the usual number. As a result, we will have to get together with the Burnett family and look closely at the finances before this year's event.

Another carnival Quiz Night was held in January. Quizzes often sell out but this time there were a few spare seats. As always, it was a good night out and several hundred pounds was raised for carnival funds. Thanks to the Emblin and Lloyds families for putting in the hard work to create the Carnival Quiz nights.

The Swing Commanders took the stage again at The Berry Theatre in February at the invitation of the Carnival Committee. Well over 200 people bought tickets including quite a lot who had never seen them before and now consider themselves to be fans. Another few hundred pounds was made for carnival funds.

REMEMBER THAT THE CARNIVAL RAISES FUNDS FOR GOOD CAUSES IN HEDGE END...

If you belong to an organisation that could make good use of a donation from carnival funds, you are welcome to apply. The application form is on the carnival website. Your application will be looked on most favourably if you have made the effort to take part in the carnival procession or show.

If you are just a spectator, make sure that you give generously, not just coppers but some nice shiny silver coins as well. If everyone who watched the procession gave £1, the value of the collection would treble and we all benefit from carnival funds throughout the year!

Janice Barfoot - Cake & Sugarcraft Centre

Janice Barfoot's Cake and Sugarcraft Centre has been a much loved part of Hedge End village life for over 20 years. Established in 1993, this super crafty cake shop has been baking and decorating beautiful cakes for every type of celebration, throughout Hedge End and its surrounding areas.

Janice's cakes are loved by adults and children alike. No one can fail to stop and stare at her wonderfully elaborate window displays. Whether it's a wedding, Halloween, Christmas, or birthday cake you're after, Janice's team have some fabulous ideas!
If you are a budding 'Great British Bake Off' contestant and want to learn how to do it for yourself, look no further. Janice now offers her customers the opportunity to attend workshops on site, so they can improve their skills and learn from her many years' experience…

How did you get started in business? What inspired you?
I had always dreamt of running my own business. Then, after I was made redundant and had been out of work for 3 months I was eligible for an Enterprise Agency scheme which awarded start-up businesses with £40 a week for 6 months to get their businesses off the ground. I had to complete an induction course and on 29 May 1993, I was up and running. I had children, so I was always baking and decorating cakes - it was something I had always been interested in. Apart from a Royal Icing course, everything I've learnt has been self-taught.

How long has your shop been situated here in Hedge End?
I started working from home initially, then after 6 months I had enough money to rent my first shop space and I rented a unit at Botley Mills.
We also ran a cake stall every Sunday at Blackbushe Market, selling my everyday cakes and we always sold out by lunch time!

We stayed in Botley until August 1999 when we finally moved into the Hedge End Village Shop. It was a complete mess when we took it over. It had been a gym and the owners had left it in a terrible state, but it was such a big space, so close to home and it was really affordable because it wasn't on the main high street. I then had the space to stock all the baking equipment I wanted to sell. There aren't many other businesses doing this type of thing, so people visit the shop from all over.

Do you live in Hedge End?
Yes, I am local - so having my business in Hedge End is ideal. When we first looked for premises we were looking as far away as Winchester.

How has the business changed over the year's?
The business has to keep changing to survive. It's changing all the time. Initially, I just wanted to make and decorate cakes, now I spend most of my time overseeing the business and doing paperwork. I do get to help with the cake decorating (when the girls let me!) and I still get to teach, which I love. The area of the shop that is now our classroom and showroom has seen a number of changes over the year's. In the past, we've also had a picture framing business and a café in there.

How has the growth of the Internet affected your business?
Greatly. People often ask for things they have seen on the internet. We are always being asked for fondant, which is the American name for sugar paste, but in the UK, fondant is something completely different. We have also just launched our brand new website:

www.janicebarfootcakes.co.uk

So, customers can now buy our sugar paste, cake boards, glitters and much more online!

Community News

Janice Barfoot - Cake & Sugarcraft Centre

What is a typical day like for you?
There isn't really a typical day. Every day is just completely different. We normally bake the bulk of our everyday cakes on a Monday, but we bake most days as needed. We do get last minute cake orders, so we can be baking all week long really. Our edible printing is always popular and Jemma is kept very busy doing these each week. Carol and Sue work part time in the shop which gives Jemma, Sue, our senior cake decorator and I, time to do the baking and decorating…

What is the most important thing you do each day?
Oversee everything – you never seem to get done what you think you will!

What is the best thing about your work?
When you take a cake out to show a customer and they absolutely love it. A bride with a tear in her eye when she sees her wedding cake for the first time…that makes it all so worthwhile for me.

And the worst?
I hate dealing with emails or sales calls which are totally irrelevant to what you are doing but they hold you up from your proper work. Or, if we get a last minute cake order which can really put us up against it time wise, but, we never like to say no and let people down. We always try our best.

What does the future hold for the business?
We are going to carry on as we are. My son Marc will be coming into the business in the future to oversee the management side of the business for me.

What is the most popular item you sell?
In the shop it's our cake boards, boxes and sugar paste.

What is your favourite / most popular cake design?
'Cascade of Roses' is our most popular wedding cake. With birthday cakes, it's really whatever's most fashionable at the moment – jungle cakes, models of things etc.

What is the most unusual cake request you have had?
I was asked to make seven, 6ft tall giraffes once and I was also requested to make a life size rocking horse. Neither of which I was able to make unfortunately, as we simply don't have the space to make anything that size. The most unusual cakes lately have been a 3D train for Hedge End Train Station's 25th Anniversary and I once made an incredibly large landmark event cake for Rubens Barrichello the Formula One driver.

What's the trickiest cake decoration skill you have had to master?
Royal Icing. It took me year's of practice.

Have you got any baking tips you would like to share?
The key to icing a cake is speed – as soon as it's out of the packing its drying up and once it starts to dry, it cracks! So, the quicker you roll it out and get it on the better!

When you aren't baking cakes, what do you like to do?
We like to go away in our caravan, often only up to Rookesbury Park in Wickham so that we can still get to the shop. I love to garden and I also have an allotment in Hedge End which I grow a lot of fruit on.

If you could only bake (& eat) one more cake, what flavour would it be?
Easy…it would have to be a ginger cake!

'Something About Eastleigh'

'Something About Eastleigh'
A Poem by John Whiteman

Once renown, as the 'Railway Town',
Skirted by roadways and railways,
North, South, East and West – a choice, which way best,
Within the bounds!

It is accessible, habitable, celestial and parochial,
Professional, official, social and educational,
Recreational, presumable, departmental and medical,
And restful…
Industrial, constructional and practical – all to be found.

Along Wide Lane, they built a little plane,
The Spitfire, what a great flyer!
It kept some of the war at bay,
To save us for today.

Now Mr Ford can no longer afford to build another Ford,
And has chosen the day to drive the last transit away,
While Mercedes can offer one to escort ladies.

Now Flybe, just maybe up, up and away,
For that splendid holiday,
Or maybe at the Parkway, each way,
Let the train take the strain.

Across the way, the Lakeside Railway,
Call in on your way, to spend some time of the day,
'Ah', all the clubs, restaurants and pubs,
Fleming Park, the surrounding park, sports of all sorts,
Holiday Inn, Premier Inn, many other inns,
Where do you begin? Perhaps a comfort night in!

At The Works, only a limited skeleton of work,
The repaint work, the upholstery work, service work,
Over the back, the go-kart track, away from the rail track.

Down on the old siding, at night time the buses hiding,
During the day, over the way, Velvet, Green, Chocolate Cream,
Red/ blue, all blue and taxis too are available for you.

The big stores, five, four, many more,
And the Swan Centre, with four ways in which to enter,
The Little Shop, some alive, but others not survive,
There you stand and stare, who used to be there?

I must include the ambulance, fire and police,
And their connections, for their support in all directions,
Over where the Pirelli cables were wound,
There are many flats and houses to be found.

There is a lot more to rhyme, but I have run out of time,
And here in the Salvation Army hall for all the work they do,
A big THANK YOU to them all!

As you will see, I managed to find 'Something About Eastleigh' after all…

John was born in Bishops Waltham in 1930. At the age of fourteen, he travelled through Hedge End to Southampton, Clarks College and returned home through Eastleigh each day for two year's. He then spent a further period travelling to the Technical College, so was able to gain a lot of knowledge of the areas at that time.

He spent many happy years living in West End and then Hedge End. After sadly losing his wife, John spent time constructing some poems from his fond memories and love of travel and transport, including this one which was written in 2012.

In his spare time, John enjoys playing table tennis with his friends at the Hedge End Seniors Table Tennis Club.

Hedge End Breakfast Rotary Shoebox Appeal

HEDGE END BREAKFAST ROTARY SHOEBOX APPEAL

When you buy a new pair of shoes, it often seems a shame to waste the box they came in. You could use it to keep odds and ends in, or perhaps keep your special photos or letters safe. But, here's another way that you could put that shoebox to a very good use…Why not save it until Autumn 2016 when you can use it to make up a parcel for disadvantaged children as part of The Rotary Shoebox Scheme?

In 2015, Hedge End Breakfast Rotary Club collected 415 shoeboxes filled with presents for children in Albania, Montenegro, Moldova and the Philippines. These gifts will have brought a bit of joy to children in these countries who otherwise may not have received any presents.

Shoeboxes were received from, among others, Wildern School, Berrywood School, Kings Copse School, Freeground's School, Botley School, St John's Church and Bishopstoke WI.

Hedge End Rotary Club would like to thank everyone involved for their generosity and kindness. Together with our fellow Rotarians in Hamble Valley Rotary Club, a total of 694 shoeboxes have been sent from Hedge End and the surrounding area.

Leaflets for the 2016 scheme will be available in the Autumn and will be given to the various schools and other organisations in time for them to be distributed.

So, please hold on to those shoe boxes this year and together we may be able to bring happiness to even more children in 2016.
